LIBRARY NONPROFIT HOSTS BENEFIT CONCERT

Grants Pass, January 7, 2008—Josephine Community Libraries, Inc., proudly announces its inaugural benefit, a concert featuring the band MTV and headliner FUNKtional Fusion. The concert will take place at 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, January 19, 2008, at the Rogue Theatre in Grants Pass. Tickets are $20 and are available at Home Valley Bank, The Daily Courier, and the Dutch Brothers cafe at 6th and D Streets.

The concert features two of our region's most popular bands: opening act MTV, composed of Dave Mathieu, John Trujillo, and Dave Vestnys; and headliner FUNKtional Fusion, an eclectic mix of ten musicians playing funk and soul with the motto "Whatever we play, it's got to be funky!"

Josephine Community Libraries, a nonprofit dedicated to reopening and operating the libraries throughout Josephine County, has been accepting donations for several months, but the concert will be its first official benefit. "We want to give the community a chance to donate to the cause of opening the library while providing a fun evening of great music," explained Doug Walker, President of the Board of Directors for Josephine Community Libraries, Inc.

The concert is sponsored by The Daily Courier, Hart Insurance, Home Valley Bank, Dutch Brothers, and Rogue Theatre. Thanks to the generosity of these sponsors, every penny of every ticket sold will go directly to fund the reopening of the libraries in Josephine County and ensure their ongoing operations.

For more information about the concert or about getting involved with the library effort, send an e-mail to info@josephinelibrary.org or visit www.josephinelibrary.org. Those interested in making a contribution can make their check or money order out to "RCC Foundation / Josephine Community Libraries." Contributions may be mailed to Josephine Community Libraries, P.O. Box 1684, Grants Pass, OR 97528.
